1 Corinthians 6:1-11

1. What did Paul talk about last week in chapter 5?
  - a. Sin in the church.
  - b. Handing someone over to satan for the destruction of the flesh, that his spirit would be saved on the day of judgement.
  - c. How to deal with problems of sin in the church.

2. What is Paul dealing with in this passage, according to 6:1?
  - a. Still disputes amongst believers, I'm sensing a theme.
  - b. Suing other Christians in a secular court.
  - c. Dealing with church matters within the church rather than outside the church.

3. Why would Christians take a dispute to an outside judge to have it decided outside the church?
  - a. We already know we are wrong and are looking for affirmation.
  - b. We want to get our way and that attitude won't be affirmed in the church.
  - c. We want the case decided by worldly wisdom and logic instead of godly wisdom.
