1 Peter 1:13-25

1. What does Peter mean in verse 13 when he tells us to have “minds that are alert and fully sober?”
 - a. God doesn’t like us to drink and do drugs.
 - b. He wants us to think clearly about the consequences of our actions.
 - c. He wants us to choose carefully how we live our lives.
 - d. He wants us to set our hope on the grace to be brought when Jesus is revealed (eyes on the prize).

2. What are Peter’s instructions in verses 14-23, considering the hope that we have and our clear thinking about the future?
 - a. Do not conform to the evil desires you used to have before you had this hope.
 - b. Be holy in all you do.
 - c. Live your time as foreigners here in reverent fear.
 - d. Love one another deeply.
 - e. All of the above.

3. Peter says that we should be holy because God is holy. What does that mean?
 - a. He is just saying that because it sounds spiritual. Nobody is really holy except for God.
 - b. He is repeating a command that is given several times in the book of Leviticus, often before a teaching on how to live (See Lev 11:44-45, Lev 19:2, Lev 20:7)
 - c. This is something that was said in Leviticus accompanied by a reminder of what God had done for Israel in the past (Lev 11:45).

4. What does verse 17 say Peter say that the Father judges?
 - a. He pretends we are righteous even though he knows that we aren’t.
 - b. He judges each person’s works impartially.

5. Why, according to verse 23-25, should we love one another deeply after we have purified ourselves?
 - a. So that we can be saved.
 - b. Because we have been saved.
 - c. Because the seed by which we have been born again is not one that leads to death, so we should not practice works that lead to death.
 - d. Because this is what was preached to us!

6. How are you going to live, now that you know this? _____
