1 Timothy 4:11-16

1. What things is Paul talking about in 4:11?
 - a. Not to focus on legalism, but to lead people to godly relationship with a living God.
 - b. The life and character that leaders in the church ought to have to model it for all the people.
 - c. All the things he's been saying.

2. Why does Paul tell Timothy in verse 12 not to let anyone look down on him because he is young?
 - a. Because he was young.
 - b. Because it might be difficult for a young person to "command and teach these things."
 - c. The world might tell us that we do not have the experience or authority to teach older people when we are young.
 - d. Well, even though we only have some of the letters written by Paul and none of the one that were written back, but we can assume this communication was a two-way street, so it is possible that people were already looking down on Timothy and that is why he was struggling to stay faithful in presenting hard teachings.

3. How does Paul say for Timothy to "combat" the tendency for people to look down on him because he is young?
 - a. Yell louder and tell people about your godly authority.
 - b. Set an example and do the things that God would have you do so that you show yourself worthy of being a teacher of others.

4. Do these instructions only apply to young people, or should we all be setting this sort of example?
