Fulfilled - John 13:18-30

1. What has Jesus just told his disciples in the previous passage?
 - a. He is their 'Teacher' and 'Lord.'
 - b. He washed their feet as an example for them.
 - c. No servant is above his master, nor is a messenger greater than the one who sent him.
 - d. They will be blessed if they do the things he had been doing.

2. Why isn't he talking to all of them, according to verse 18?
 - a. Because he only chosen some to be his followers.
 - b. Because he knew that someone had already turned against Him in their heart.
 - c. Although he has chosen us all, we must also choose Him in order to receive the blessings that he has for us (See 2 Peter 3:9).

3. Why did Jesus tell them that someone had turned against Him, according to verse 19?
 - a. So that they could figure out who.
 - b. So that when it happens, they would believe that "I am who I say that I am."

4. How did Jesus feel about knowing that he would be betrayed, according to verses 20-28?
 - a. He was fine with it, God had already told Him so it was easy to accept.
 - b. Jesus didn't really have any feelings, so betrayal was easier for Him to accept than it is for us.
 - c. He likely struggled both personally and spiritually because his friend was going to betray Him, but this also had eternal ramifications for that person's soul.
 - d. He was troubled in Spirit, but he does seem incredibly calm (perhaps at peace) with what is happening.

5. Is it possible to be at peace, even when things are upsetting? _____

Does peace mean that we have no feelings and like the situation? _____

Can we tell the difference? _____
Do we lump the two together and then attribute nonhuman attributes to Jesus while excusing our lack of peace as simply human? _____

6. What happened when Jesus handed Judas the bread?
 - a. Jesus sent Satan into Judas.
 - b. Probably the same thing that happens to us when the Spirit of God points out the evil that is in our hearts and we choose not to repent.
 - c. Satan entered him.

7. What did Jesus tell Judas in verse 27?
 - a. He told him to do something evil.
 - b. He told him to do what had already been decided in his heart.
 - c. Throughout the book of John, Jesus has been concerned with timing. The time has come!

8. Do you have evil (sin) in your heart that you have not yet acted on? _____
How will you respond if the Spirit of God points it out? _____
