Exodus 7:14-24

1. What happened in last week's Bible Study?
 - a. There was a genealogy that set the place of Moses and Aaron within in the tribes of Israel and within the tribe of Levite for those who would read and look back.
 - b. Moses and Aaron met with Pharoah and performed the first miracle, the staff turning into a snake.
 - c. Pharoah's heart was hardened, and he didn't respond to their request or to the miracle.
 - d. We noted that this part of the story is more narrative and descriptive and less personal than the first section, which described the call of Moses and his discussions with God, had been.

2. What is happening now in 7:14-15?
 - a. God has a plan to deal with Pharoah's unyielding heart.
 - b. God tells Moses to stalk Pharoah during his morning bath...or worshipping at the river which Egypt depended on for irrigating...or perhaps just when he was checking the water level during a season that saw frequents floods...but stalking nonetheless, not meeting him at a time when it would be appropriate for someone to make a request of the king.

3. What does Moses say to Pharoah, according to 7:16-18?
 - a. God sent me to tell you to let my people go, but so far you haven't listened.
 - b. God is going to show you that He has authority over you (that He is the Lord).
 - c. I am going to strike the Nile with my staff and it will be changed into blood.
 - d. The fish of the Nile will die, the river will stink, and the Egyptians will not have anything to drink.
 - e. Wait is this the same second sign that we learned about before? Because it sounds a little different.

4. What happened in verse 22-23? _____

5. When God works miracles today, are there still those that can find other ways to perform similar "miracles" so that people's hearts are hardened and they don't believe in the power of God? _____

6. What did the Egyptians do in verse 24? _____

7. If God were to send plagues or signs that were intended to make us believe that He is Lord and should have authority in our lives, would we listen or would we come up with an explanation for the 'trick' and then find a way around the problem ourselves? _____

8. Has this already happened in our lives? _____
