

A.L.I.V.E. Bible Study
Date: November 26, 2017
Hebrews 13:20-25

1. How, according to verse 20, does the writer of the Hebrews describe God?
 - a. The God of peace.
 - b. The God who brought back Jesus from the dead, a God of power.
 - c. The Shepherd of the Sheep

2. Does this describe the God who you serve? Yes_____ No_____ Explain. _____

3. What, according to verse 21, is the prayer that the writer of Hebrews offers for us?
 - a. That he would forgive us.
 - b. That he would equip us...
 - c. That he would give us everything we need to do his will.
 - d. That he may work in us what is pleasing to Him.

4. What are you allowing God to do in you? _____

5. What does the writer urge us in verse 22?
 - a. To bear with his exhortation.
 - b. Like most pastors, he insists that he has spoken briefly when it really seemed pretty extensive!
 - c. He seems to believe that everything he has said has been an important part of the instruction and necessary, even if it seemed long to them.

6. What does he tell the us in verse 23?
 - a. Our brother Timothy has been released...
 - b. The writer is hoping to come to see them soon.
 - c. He is bringing an update about someone that they undoubtedly cared for and likely were praying for...therefore, this is a praise for answered prayer like we might share in our Bible Studies.

7. How does he end the letter, according to verses 24-25?
 - a. He asks that their leaders be greeted on his behalf and sends greetings on behalf of others.
 - b. He extends grace to them, a very powerful message.

8. How do you greet brothers and sisters from whom you are distant? _____
