Hebrews 3

1. How does the writer of Hebrews start this chapter in 3:1-2?
 - a. By calling us “holy” brothers and sisters.
 - b. By reminding us to fix our thoughts on Jesus.
 - c. By calling Jesus our apostle and high priest.
 - d. By comparing him to Moses, both faithful among the people of God.

2. Why, according to 3:3-4, has Jesus been found worthy of greater honor than Moses?
 - a. Uh...something about a house.
 - b. The writer compares Jesus to the builder of a house, but calls Moses the house!
 - c. Because nothing was created except through the Son (or the Word), the Son is creator while Moses is creation.
 - d. Jesus was not just faithful, he is also the one through whom we are made faithful.

3. In what situation, does 3:6 call us the house of God? _____

4. How, according to 3:7-12, should we “hold firmly to our confidence” (remain in the faith), and be built by Christ into God’s house?
 - a. If we hear the voice of God, don’t harden our hearts.
 - b. Don’t be like the people of Israel as described in Numbers (particularly Numbers 14), who didn’t trust God and do what He said.
 - c. Don’t have a sinful, unbelieving heart that turns away from the living God.

5. What does 3:13 suggest is an important part of being built into God’s house?
 - a. Encourage one another daily.
 - b. It looks like God is not only interested in us being built, but in us participating in the building up of each other!
 - c. God gives us a call to help our brothers and sisters stand firm against “sin’s deceitfulness.”

6. So, can we be built into the house of God alone? Yes_____ No_____ Explain. _____

7. Are you listening to the voice of God and allowing him to build you into a Spiritual house (dwelling place of God, creation of God’s own hand for His own purpose)? _____

8. Are you participating in God’s plan to build others up and encourage them toward faithfulness? _____
