We have _____ a _____.

2. What sort of high priest is the writer talking about, according to 7:29 and 8:2?
 - a. One who is appointed by an oath or promise rather than by a regulation.
 - b. One who has been made perfect forever, rather than one who must make sacrifices first for himself.
 - c. One who serves in a sanctuary set up by the Lord, not made by human beings.

3. What, according to 8:5, is the sanctuary on earth in which the priests served?
 - a. A _____ and _____ of what is in _____.

4. Does this mean that the earthly tabernacle was not important at all? Yes_____ No_____ Explain. _____

5. What does the writer say in verses 7-9 about the old covenant? _____

6. What, according to verses 10-12, is different about the new covenant?
 - a. _____
 - b. _____
 - c. _____

7. Does this mean that we shouldn't be teaching Bible Study or preaching?
 - a. Yes, I'm outta here!
 - b. No, we still need people to teach us.
 - c. Well...if we all actually lived by the new covenant and followed the leading of His Spirit living inside of us and did the right thing that we knew in our heart we should do rather than what felt good to our flesh, we might not rely on teachers and preachers quite so much. Then, we would truly meet in church to lift one another up rather than to be told what we should and shouldn't do (See 5:12).

8. Which covenant do you live by? _____
