Jeremiah 11

1. What does God say to Jeremiah in 11:2? _____

2. What, according to 11:3-4, is the consequence of not obeying the terms of the covenant? _____

3. What, according to 11:4-5 are the rewards for obeying the terms of the covenant?
 - a. You will be “My People.”
 - b. I will be your God.
 - c. I will fulfill the oath I swore to your ancestors...to give you the “promised land” that you are living in right now.
4. Is God offering a works salvation (deliverance) to Israelites in verses 1-5?
 - a. Yes, they have to obey him.
 - b. No, God gave them mercy and grace when they called out to Him before they ever deserved it.
 - c. No, they didn’t earn their salvation (deliverance), but they were expected to respond in love and gratitude and give their lives.
 - d. It really wasn’t a list of works that they were given to obey as much as it was a list of values...ways to live...and most of all, God wanted them to be in relationship, not do a bunch of things.
 - e. The thing about relationship is that it is hard and sometimes there is work involved...but if you really love the person and/or if you are truly grateful for what they have done, the works come easy.
5. Is this a new covenant that God is giving to Israel?
 - a. No, this is an old covenant that God has already given them the benefits of for his part.
 - b. Yeah, man God is demanding. Why didn’t he tell them this before. It’s like it always gets harder and you can never please him.
 - c. No, the covenant has never changed from the beginning and is still the same today.
6. How have Israel and Judah chosen to respond to the words of God, according to 11:9-17? _____
7. What are the consequences of Jeremiah’s obedience to the Lord, according to 11:18-23?
 - a. They went to a different church because they didn’t like what he was saying.
 - b. Judah (his own people) wants to kill him.
 - c. They want to wipe out every memory of his existence.
 - d. They hate him.
8. Why did they want to do this to him? _____

9. What did God do for Jeremiah?
 - a. He warned him about the plot.
 - b. He protected him.
 - c. The truth prevailed.
 - d. Jeremiah did not have to worry about it. He did not even realize it was happening. God handled everything. All Jeremiah had to do was continue to be obedient.
10. How have you responded to those who speak the word of the Lord? _____
