Titus 2:11-3:15

1. What was the text in 2:1-10 talking about last week? _____

2. How does 2:11-14 start today?
 - a. Oh, thank God, now we're talking about grace. That correction and teaching to act virtuous was pretty rough.
 - b. He says the grace of God...teaches us to say "No" to ungodliness and worldly passions, and to live self-controlled, upright and godly lives in this present age...
 - c. Oh, thank God that his grace can help us be the people that Paul & Titus would teach us to be.
 - d. Wait, if Titus was teaching them to live the way we read in 2:1-10, isn't he an instrument of the grace of God in our lives?
 - e. This almost sounds like Paul is using these verses to remind Titus why he needs to teach these things and be an instrument of God's grace.
3. Do we see our pastors who teach us hard things as instruments of God's grace?
Yes_____ No_____ Do we ever despise them for doing what God has called them to do? _____
4. What else is Titus told to teach and remind people, according to 3:1-2?
 - a. Be _____ to _____ and _____.
 - b. Be _____.
 - c. Be _____ to do whatever is _____.
 - d. _____ no one.
 - e. Be _____ and _____.
 - f. Always be _____ toward everyone.
5. Who does it say in 3:3 did we used to be? _____

6. What happened, according to 3:4-5a, to change that? _____

7. What has that made us now that we are justified, according to 3:5b-7? _____

8. What, then, according to 3:8, should we devote ourselves to now that we are heirs? _____

9. How, according to 3:9-11, should we deal with divisive people? _____

10. How are you living now that you have been saved, justified, and made an heir? _____
